

A FEW OF 1964's RED, WHITE and ROAN HIGHLIGHTS

Establishing a strong new Polled heritage is Acadia Napoleon 75th x.

Ready to add new lustre to the established Acadia lines are these sons of Calrossie Diadem—Bilmar Marshal Diadem and Bilmar Gallant Diadem.

Here's hoping that 1964 was a great year for you, too, and that 1965 will be even more momentous.

You can be sure a warm welcome will await you at Acadia at the 2nd Annual "Choice of Champions" Sale of Shorthorns and Polled Shorthorns in Northfield, Ohio, on Saturday, May 29.

Read the 1964 show records to learn why the 1st Annual "Choice of Champions" Sale was aptly named. That's the 104th in the ring.

Carrying on the proud Napoleon tradition are calves like these two first sons of the 66th—the 104th and the 102nd.

Acadia's International Carlot Record with Troubadour and Napoleon steers: 1964 Champions, 1963 Reserve Champions, 1962 Champions.

Acadia has won the Premier Breeder banner for six consecutive years with the Troubadours and the Napoleons.
